Honoring the memory of his service to country as an officer of the United States Army and his service to community as a beloved coach.

"Gary coached so many teams, both overseas and here at home. In the 1980s, our girls were interested in playing soccer. Gary checked a book out of the library and coached one group of girls for over 12 seasons. We hope to continue his positive legacy by improving this field." —Ann Smith, wife (pictured with family)
