

Fairfax County Park Authority

Fast Facts

HISTORY:

On December 6, 1950, the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors created the Fairfax County Park Authority. The Park Authority was authorized to make decisions concerning land acquisition, park development and operations in Fairfax County, Virginia.

Through the support of the Board of Supervisors and the foresight of the county citizens, 12 park bond referenda have been approved between 1959 and 2012. Today, the Park Authority has 427 parks on approximately 23,359 acres of land.

FACILITIES:

The park system is the primary public mechanism in Fairfax County for the preservation of environmentally sensitive land and resources, areas of historic significance and the provision of recreational facilities and services including:

- Nine indoor RECenters with swimming pools, fitness rooms, gyms and class spaces. Cub Run features an indoor water park and on-site naturalist.
- Eight golf courses including Laurel Hill, an upscale course & clubhouse located in Southern Fairfax County, as well as the new Oaks Room at Twin Lakes
- Five nature and visitor centers plus Riverbend Park and E.C Lawrence Park plus Huntley Meadows Park, our beautiful wetlands park with boardwalk
- Several lakes including Lake Fairfax, Lake Accotink and Burke Lake, with campgrounds at Burke Lake and Lake Fairfax
- The expanded Water Mine Family Swimmin' Hole at Lake Fairfax, Our Special Harbor Spray ground at Lee as well as an indoor water park at Cub Run RECenter
- Clemyjontri Park, a fully accessible playground in Great Falls featuring two acres of fun and a carousel and Chessie's Big Back Yard at Lee District
- An ice skating rink at Mount Vernon RECenter, and skate parks in Wakefield Park adjacent to Audrey Moore RECenter and Lake Fairfax Park
- Kidwell Farm, a working farm of the 1930s era at Frying Pan Farm Park in Herndon, now with historic carousel, cider press, visitor center and playground (cont'd on back)
